

Criteria for Obtaining ASN Canada FIA Rally Licences

National Rally Licences are obtained through:

Canadian Association of Rallysport
595 Elm Road
Stouffville, Ontario
L4A 1W9
Phone/Fax 905-640-6444
Email: office@carsrally.ca
Website: www.carsrally.ca

International Rally Licences are obtained through ASN Canada FIA:

Category	Type	Requirements
International	Driver-Rally	Required for all Rally events listed on the FIA International Calendar To qualify for an International Rally, the applicant must have held a Regional or National Rally licence within the previous three calendar years, and finished one National Championship Special Stage Rally or two Regional Championship Special Stage Rallies. To maintain qualification for an International Rally Licence, the applicant must compete in at least 1 event requiring a National or International Rally Licence within the previous 24 months. Age Restriction: 16 years and up
Historic International H4	Driver-Historic	Required for all Historic Regularity Rallies listed on the FIA International Calendar To qualify for an International H4, the applicant must have finished three rallies run under CARS sanction, one of which must have been at least 200 kilometers in length. To maintain qualification for an International Historic Rally Licence, the applicant must compete in at least 1 event requiring a National or International rally licence within the previous 24 months. Age Restriction: 16 years and up